

To whom it may concern,

Royal Rehab, trading as Sargood on Collaroy, is an NDIS accredited provider (organisation ID: 4050002604). NDIS participants may be able to seek assistance to support their stay at Sargood through the NDIA.

From time to time, participants may require temporary supports that are different from their usual arrangements. Sargood on Collaroy provides Short Term Accommodation and Assistance including assistance with daily personal activities, accommodation, & negotiated activities. Typically, this type of support would be used for short periods of up to 14 days at a time but can be used up to 28 days per year.

Sargood on Collaroy is a purpose built facility for those living with a spinal cord injury. Sargood on Collaroy features 17 self-contained apartments located overlooking Sydney's beautiful Collaroy Beach. We deliver a tailored experience for all guests providing specialised equipment and support workers that are trained specifically to work with those living with a spinal cord injury. Our activities program is delivered and supported by specialist spinal trained therapists and is an opportunity for all guests to engage in new experiences, learn new skills and reconnect with peers.

Short term accommodation prices vary according to the support needs of the participant.

Sargood on Collaroy provides the following packages for NDIS participants:
